Houjsefci ior the Rural Landless Labour Scheme in M.P.

1824. SHRI AJIT P. K. JOGI:
SHRI DURGA PRASAD JAMUDA:

Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to refe$_r$ to answer to Unstarred Questio$_n$ 696 and 687 given in Rajya Sabha on the 13th November, 1987 and state:

(a) whether any special campaign was launched to accelerate work on the Houses for the Rural Landless Labour Scheme during the International year of Shelter for Homeless in 1987;

and

(b) what ig the estimated number of rural homeless families in Madhya I Pradesh and by when they are likely to be provided with houses?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI DALBIB SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir. The State Govern-ments/UT Administrations constituted committees and also designated focal points to accelerate the formulation, implementation and monitoring of various shelter programme's. Further, the scheme of Allotment of House-sites and construction assistance which forms part of Point No. 14 of the 20-Point Programme, 1986 was one of the schemes designated as the National Demonstration Projects under IYSH. The accelerated pace of implementation of the scheme is illustrated by the fact that during the year 1987, 8.94 lakh families were allotted house-sites and construction assistance was provided to 4.16 lakh families in the rural areas by various State Govts/UT Admns.

(b) According to 1981 census, there was 2.79 lakh rural houseless population in M.P. However, under the scheme of the House-sites and Construction Assistance, since Sixth Five Year Plan, and upto 31st December, 1987, 2.77 lakh families were allotted house-sites and construction assistance was given to 2.62 lakh families in the rural areas of M.P.
